

About 20 girls thought they'd landed on Planet Beauty Bliss for the night as they pampered, polished, buffed and learned LOADS about this summer's trends, hottest new products and picked up a few expert tips and tricks, too!

In return, they came armed with drinks, nibbles and a donation to Macmillan!

Meanwhile, there were the beautifully packaged SeaScape Island Apothecary goodies, natural treats made in the Channel Islands, ways to gentle summer de-fuzz with Nair (!) and a new discovery for me, too - ishiso Dry2Alive, a face and body moisturiser in-one with marshmallow oil (great for travel) – we're also passing on samples of these to our local Macmillan ward nurses who, we're told, are always super-grateful for hydrating creams to use on hands etc. for both themselves and their patients.
